LITTLE ONES BECOME BIG ONES

Many of our friends ask us why we put forth such efforts as we do to get small accounts. Many of which started with deposits of only one dollar. It is true that such accounts do not begin to repay the cost of handling.

However, we are building for the future. These small accounts will grow. Many of them will in time become very profitable. The small depositor of today will be the large depositor of tomorrow. The boy who opens the dollar savings account will in a few years be a business man with a valuable commercial account.

We want the youngsters to get in the habit of banking with us now, so that they will stay with us during years to come.

On last Saturday the two great rivals—Lynchburg Cotton Mills and Red House ball teams came together for a double header at Pamplin. The Cotton Mills found the Red House boys easy and were victorious in both games, although the morning game was declared a pretty game of ball.

—4 to 3. This team is to play at Appomattox Saturday.

R. T. Shields who was shot last week has so far recovered that he was able to report at the C. H., and renew his bond for $8,000 for his appearance at the November term of Campbell Court. We hear that Morran who was also shot at the same time is recovering. In this case has attracted much attention in this county, on account of the fact that Shield's father and brother reside in this county.

The Appomattox ball team has come to light again. They feel that the people of Appomattox and the county should not have to drive 12 or 15 miles to see other teams play, but drive to Appomattox on next Saturday and see the best game of the season. The boys promise a good team and a clean game, and they ask your attendance Saturday at 4 p. m.

The great Price revival closed Sunday night with more than 1000 people from all sections of the county. There were more than 500 reclamations and converts. No revival ever held in this section approached it in interest and attendance. Dr. Price is counted a wonderful preacher, practical, forceful and convincing, and the methodical manner in which the campaign was planned and executed elicited most favorable comment. Miss Palmer and Rev. Thomas of his party also greatly endeared themselves to our people. It was a great meeting with great results.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hancock, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hancock, Mrs. W. B. Caldwell, Mrs. C. F. James, Mrs. George Purdum and Mrs. Frank McKinney were in the receiving line with the young ladies. The guests enjoyed the various games introduced. The most enjoyable being the 30 grains of corn valued at $1 each which was the currency used to buy the many mementoes of the occasion, which were purchased by the Misses Hancock while touring Europe this summer, and which were offered at auction by auctioneer Howlett Martin. The Miller Orchestra, of Lynchburg, furnished the music. The guests were ushered into the dining room elaborately decorated with golden rods, where supper was served for the great party.

The evening came to a close with every heart full of appreciation to the Misses Hancock for the most enjoyable party of its kind ever given in our little town.

Lee Patterson Shot

Saturday evening Robert Patterson shot his step-father, Lee Patterson, in the back with a shot gun. It is said Robert, who is regarded as a mean negro, was engaged in making "old hen" (whiskey) at his mother's home here and Friday evening after a service at the warehouse to colored people Lee it seems ordered the whiskey to be poured out. This so enraged Robert that he declared he would kill Lee and got the gun and shot him. Neal Patterson an uncle was then turned on by the mal negro and given the chase of his life, hotly pursued by Robert who ran him into the home of C. T. Moses. Uncle Neal knocked flowers and tables as he rushed up stairs to the private chamber where Mrs. Moses and her sister were reposing. He soon explained his presence in their room; known as one of the best colored men in the State, the ladies were not frightened. Robert was arrested and is in jail awaiting the October grand jury. Uncle Lee Patterson is said to be improving and is expected now to recover. Robert's mother is said to have received several blows from him. He is in a bad fix with no one to say a good word for him.

The Campaign Opened

The Democratic State Campaign will be opened formally at Clintwood, Dickinson county, September 27, when the Hon. E. Leo Trinkle, party gubernatorial nominee, will address the voters of that section on campaign issues by delivering his key note address.

Congressman H. D. Flood, state democratic chairman, is booked to address the voters of Halifax at Halifax September 28th. Chairman Flood will speak at Middlesex the following day and at Amherst on October 10th. As the Democratic campaign is largely under the direction of the State chairman Mr. Flood will be kept busily engaged during the next few weeks. The Tenth district congressman has thrown himself very heartily into the fight and is confident of leading the democratic forces to an overwhelming victory.

Speaking assignments are now being mapped out for Senator Swanson, Senator Glass, Governor Westmoreland Davis, as well as all of the Virginia members of Congress.

Robert G. Hundley, veteran of the World War and a son of Judge George J. Hundley, of the circuit bench, will deliver an address at Cumberland Court House September 27th.

Pains Were Terrific

Read how Mrs. Albert Gregory, of R. F. D. No. 1, Blufford, Ill., got rid of her pain. "During the last few days I was awfully weak. My pains were terrible. I thought I would die. The bearing-down pains were actually so severe I could not stand the pressure of my hands on the lower part of my stomach. I simply felt as if life was for but a short time. One evening, while reading the Holy Bible, I came across a case similar to mine, and went straight for some Cardui for me to try."

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I took it faithfully and the results were immediate," said Mrs. Gregory. "I continued to get better. All my ills left me, and I went through life with no further trouble. My baby was fat and strong, and myself—thank God—am once more hale and hearty, can walk miles, do my work, though 44 years old, feel like a new person. All I owe to Cardui." For many years Cardui has been found helpful in building up the system when run down by disorders peculiar to women.
